Hi Jo,

How are you doing? I'm really excited about coming to stay with you. I'm writing to tell you a bit more about myself.

As you know, I'm sixteen and I live in Venice. My brother and I go to the same school. I'm not crazy about studying but it's OK – my favourite subject is Art. What about you? What subjects are you good at?

In my free time, I'm keen on sports and I'm not bad at volleyball. I'm also passionate about music, especially British bands. At the moment I'm listening to Little Mix all the time. What kind of music are you interested in?

At weekends, my friends and I love going to the cinema. What do you enjoy doing at weekends?

I can't wait to see you next month! I'm sure we'll have fun.

OK, time to finish. Write soon

Bye 4 now.

Science at the South Pole

Jane Roberts is a marine biologist. She worked for two years in Antarctica. Here, she answers your questions.

Is there really a pole at the South Pole?

Yes, there is. It's in front of the Amundsen-Scott South Pole Station. In 1911 a Norwegian explorer called Roald Amundsen was the first person to get there, followed by a British man, Robert Falcon

- s Scott, thirty-four days later. Unfortunately, Scott and his team of five all died on the return journey. When the first explorers reached the South Pole there was nothing there. Now, several hundred people work at the Station. There's an airstrip for small planes,
- 10 a canteen, hot showers, a post office, a tourist shop, a basketball court and a movie theatre.

Who does Antarctica belong to?

Antarctica doesn't belong to any nation. There's no permanent population, but there are bases that look like small towns. Thirty different countries run about seventy research stations in Antarctica. People stay there between three and eighteen months. Most people work only in the summer months, but some stay all year round. The population is around 4,000 in summer and 1,000 in winter.

Why did you want to work in Antarctica?

20 I was studying in London and I read about an exciting research project in Antarctica. I applied for the job, but thousands of other people also applied. I was lucky!

What exactly were you doing there?

I was doing research into marine life. I collected specimens of ice and examined them in the laboratory. There are layers of ice thousands of years old! We found the remains of a dinosaur. It was in millions of pieces and we had to put all the pieces together like a jigsaw. Our research showed us that millions of years ago the Antarctic was much warmer.

It's extremely cold all year round. When I was doing 30 experiments outside, I wore three pairs of socks and often five layers of clothing. Winter temperatures fall to -80°C and even summer temperatures are below zero at the South Pole. For several months, there's no sunlight at all. Sometimes it's too cold to go outside.

What did you do in your free time?

35 When it was snowing, we read lots of books and played games. There isn't much to do in Antarctica, but I enjoy reading and I made some good friends there too.

Did you miss home?

No, but I missed colours – it's very white in Antarctica! But I was working all day and it was really interesting work.

Hi Adam,

I've just come back from a visit to the Copernicus Science Centre – it's really cool! You MUST go! You'll love it. I like the Planetarium best. Make sure you visit the Robot Room.
It's great fun. It's open every day except Monday from 9 a.m.

centre. Wear comfortable shoes because it's a very big take a bottle of water.

Have fun.

See you,

Alice

Just a quick message to say a big THANK YOU for suggesting the Copernicus Science Centre. It was a perfect day.

¹ we went to the Gallery and did some interactive experiments – we really enjoyed that.

we went to the Robotic Theatre. That was amazing – the actors are robots! It was brilliant and we stayed there for ages, but ³ it finished and we went to the canteen for lunch. ⁴ ? , we went to the Planetarium. Lisa: What happened?

Tom: I was doing some climbing. At first the sun was shining and I was enjoying myself. 2

But all of a sudden the weather changed.
It became really foggy and I couldn't see the path. 3

Tom: I was pretty worried. I continued for a while,

Tom: Fortunately, I had my phone with me so I called my father – 9,000 miles away in England! He called the Australian police and told them where I was. Then they called me. Unfortunately, my battery went dead after five seconds. It was dark and cold. I sat under a rock, put on my torch and waited.

Lisa: Oh no, what a nightmare!

Tom: Eventually, they found me. I was so relieved.

Underwater forest

Several years ago, scuba diver Chas Broughton discovered an underwater forest of massive ancient cypress trees. Located twenty kilometres from the coast of Alabama, in the Gulf of Mexico, it is home for thousands of sea animals. Chas told a local journalist about the discovery, but they kept it secret until 2004, when Hurricane Ivan uncovered some of the trees. Then scientists started exploring the area. They have suggested that the forest is more than 50,000 years old. In the past, the ocean level in the area was 125 metres lower than today, but when it rose, the water swallowed the trees up. The forest is so unique that conservationists are now working to make it a marine protected area.

- 1 The scientists
 - A found out about the discovery from a local journalist.
 - B started visiting the area after the 2004 hurricane.
 - C are trying to protect the forest.

Last week I took part in an unusual survey. A psychologist invited forty four families and asked us different questions about eating habits now and in the past. She wanted to find out why fathers give children less healthy food than mothers. Strange, isn't it? But it's true in my family.

When my mum isn't at home for dinner, Dad orders a pizza. Mum doesn't accept unhealthy food because she feels responsible for what we eat. Dad cares more about my education or hobbies. According to the survey, in most families the situation was and is similar. Teenagers observe their parents and learn how to behave in the future. My parents used to observe their parents and now I am observing them. This is how people learn some gender norms.

- 3 The survey the writer took part in shows that
 - A mothers and fathers look after families in different ways.
 - B fathers don't care about families as much as mothers.
 - C teenagers would like to change eating habits in their families.

2 SPEAKING Think of three more words and phrases for each verb. Which of them do you do? Tell your partner.

I read blogs on my laptop.

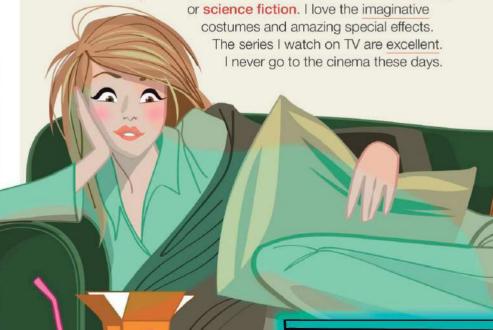

One episode is never enough

I have an embarrassing confession to make – I am a TV binge watcher! Of course I don't mean traditional TV programmes – documentaries, chat shows, reality TV and the old soap operas my grandmother likes to watch. They're boring. No – I mean the on-demand TV series that are so engaging and addictive.

When I was a teenager, before on-demand TV, I was a bookworm. I used to sit down with a gripping novel, and read chapter after chapter, sometimes a whole book in a day. Now, I'm twenty-seven and I do the same with TV.

TV audiences are becoming more difficult to please, so TV channels are producing better dramas more quickly. The best drama series have complex plots and fascinating characters. I just have to watch the next episode.

My greatest weakness? I really like dramas that are funny and moving with brilliant acting. But my absolute favourite type of series is fantasy

2	appear (in cinemas) = ?

One of the most popular cinema genres of the twenty-first century so far is the superhero movie. Some people say that superhero movies are the new westerns. Both genres have similar themes: the good guys fighting the bad guys, protecting the innocent 5 and giving up their life for the good of others.

When a new superhero movie comes out, it dominates the box office for weeks. The trailer for Captain America: Civil War was one of the most downloaded trailers ever and A-list actors are keen to take on 10 superhero roles.

Many superhero films have had Oscar nominations, and fan events like Comic-Con* keep fans excited about the latest blockbusters.

First of all, there's the adventure, the action and the 15 costumes, the great soundtracks, the special effects and computer-generated images. They're fun and entertaining, and we love the escapism. But is that enough?

You have to look deeper to find out why people love 20 them. Superheroes have feelings. They cope with human experiences that we can relate to. In other words, they are not so different from regular people. Psychologist Mary Tavost has written books about the psychology of superheroes, and she thinks that they 25 inspire their fans because their goals in life are similar to human goals.

They want peace, justice and love, just as we do. The lives of superheroes reflect real life as we know it.

Batman dedicates himself to fighting crime after 30 somebody murders his parents in front of him. In real life, people who experience a trauma often decide to help others. But he also shows a very human side because love is his motivation. In The Dark Knight, his love for Rachel makes him weak. As a result, he often 35 makes bad decisions. When Hulk is angry, he causes terrible destruction. He finds it difficult to control his angry feelings, and then he feels guilty when he loses control. This is easy to understand – extreme anger is a very human emotion.

Superheroes cope with problems and find meaning in loss and trauma. When they discover their powers, they use them for a good purpose. X-Men are 'mutants' – people reject them because they are different and 'weird' – but they use their powers 45 to stand up for the innocent. They inspire us to accept ourselves and be proud of who we are. Before Spiderman had superpowers, his classmates bullied him at school. Later, he uses his abilities to protect people who can't protect themselves. These 50 superheroes may be larger than life, but we have no problems identifying with their human side.

Dear Aunty Susan and Uncle Tom,

I hope you're both well. Thanks very much for the money for my birthday. I've bought some new paints and brushes. Actually, I think my painting is improving and I'm still hoping to go to art school one day.

I've just come back from my school trip to London. I had a great time. We did some sightseeing and saw a fantastic photography exhibition at the Portrait Gallery. We also went to the theatre and saw a play called War Horse. I have to say, it's the best play I've ever seen.

I'm sorry to hear that you've failed your driving test again Aunty Susan. You must be very disappointed. Do you think you'll take it again?

By the way, we're having a family lunch on Sunday. Would you like to come? It would be lovely to see you.

Well, that's all for now. Thanks again for the present – it was very kind of you.

Hope to see you on Sunday, Love,

- B A modest artist in the background
- C Art is not for sale
- D Two definitions
- E A photographer's perspective
- F A famous person in the foreground

Are photographers artists or only craftsmen? What is the difference? A craftsman creates useful objects by hand and then sells them. An artist creates things just to express emotions, entertain or tell a story. But is it really so simple?

Let's take Annie Leibovitz, for example, who is now the most famous portrait photographer in the world. She has photographed well-known actors, singers, Olympic champions and designers. Her photographs always tell an emotional story and are true pieces of art. But she also earns money on them.

The backgrounds for her portraits are created by another person, Sarah Oliphant. Her works include huge landscapes, abstract paintings or small objects. She says she is a craftsperson, not an artist, because everything she makes is useful to other people and they pay her for it. But people can see her work as art too.

So what is the answer? I am a photographer and I know that people who work in the photography business are almost always craftsmen. They produce images for money on their clients' orders. But sometimes they use their talent, tools and skills to create something personal. And then they become artists.

People who don't live in traditional houses

1 Living in trees

The Korowai Tribe of Papua New Guinea are strong and good at climbing. They have to be! They live in treehouses, sometimes forty-five metres above the ground. The dense rainforest is hot and humid; there are insects and dangerous animals. Treehouses protect the stribe from these dangers on the ground. They use material from the forest to build the houses. They cut off the top of a tree and build the floor first. They use a ladder to get up and down. Imagine the breathtaking views from one of these treehouses!

2 Living underground

In the desert of Southeast 10 Australia, 500 miles away from the nearest city, is a mining town called Coober Pedy. On the sandy surface, there isn't much to see. 2 Almost s all of the 3.500 residents live underground and work in the opal mines. To escape from scorching temperatures, they have created an impressive 20 underground world where you'll find everything from a bookstore to a church, and even a hotel.

3 Living in a volcano

Aogashima is a Japanese island in the Philippine Sea. Over 230 years ago,

25 a volcanic eruption killed half of its population. Now about 200 people live in the old volcanic crater. They try not to worry too much about another eruption. They love living on the island - there are no traffic jams or crowds of people. Fishing, hiking, camping and swimming are popular activities. Aogashima's natural hot springs and lush vegetation attract a lot of visitors, but the island is not so easy to reach. You can take a fourteen--hour boat trip from Tokyo. 3

4 Living on the sea

The Bajau /'baːdʒau/ people of Borneo in Southeast Asia, also called sea gypsies, live on boats or houses on stilts in the turquoise Pacific Ocean. When they go on land, they feel 'landsick'. Bajau children don't go to school on land. But from an early age they learn to swim and dive. 4 dive 20 metres to the bottom of the ocean to search for fish. Young Bajau children spend so much time in the ocean that their eyes develop excellent underwater vision.

The best Bajau divers can

5 Living in caves

The ancient city of Petra is a popular tourist destination. It is located in the rose-coloured mountains of south-western

Jordan and was once a busy trading centre. Then, its residents abandoned the city and for thousands of years only the Bedouin, a nomadic tribe, lived in caves among the spectacular historic ruins.

However, the government has recently decided to move them to a nearby village to protect Petra. But the Bedouins' way of life has not changed much. 5 Some of them work in Petra, selling souvenirs or transporting tourists on horses, camels and donkeys around the historic monuments.

WRITING

A blog entry

I can write a description of a recent trip.

1 In your notebooks, list as many British cities as you can think of in sixty seconds.

- Read a blog about Bath. Which topics does the blogger mention?
 - a Art and culture
- d General information
- b Food and drink

c Entertainment and nightlife

- e Shopping
- f Tourist highlights
- 3 SPEAKING Would you like to visit Bath? Why?/ Why not? Discuss with a partner.

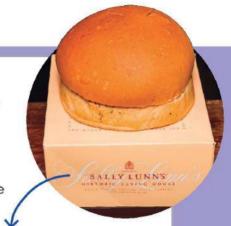

Last weekend, I visited my cousin in Bath, Somerset, in the southwest of England. Bath is a popular tourist destination and is famous for its historic sites. Today's blog entry is about my visit.

I met my cousin on Saturday morning and we walked around the city. Bath is a lovely place. The centre is small, so most people tend to visit it on foot. It was very busy, but we saw some really beautiful architecture. For visitors, a walk along the river is a must.

We stopped for lunch in a traditional tearoom. One of the local specialities is the Sally Lunn Bun. It was delicious! After lunch, we went shopping. Bath has a wide selection of shops. According to fashion magazines, Bath is 'Britain's best fashion secret'. I bought a cool T-shirt, some sunglasses and a hat.

In the evening, we went to the Roman Baths. It is the most popular attraction in the city. If you're tired after a long day, I would definitely recommend relaxing in the thermal waters of Bath Spa. I thought it was wonderful!

2 Read three descriptions of different school systems. Which text describes a school in Brazil, Finland and Japan? For the answers, go to page 150.

Our school is quite informal – we can call our teachers by their first names. We don't move up to secondary school when we're 11 because we attend the same comprehensive school from 7 to 16. All our classes are mixed ability. The curriculum includes academic subjects but also Art, Music and PE, with only about 30 minutes of homework every day. We're lucky – we don't have to pay tuition fees to do a degree at university.

School is compulsory between the ages of 6 and 14. Our school terms are from February to June and August to December. We break up in December for our summer holiday. I set off for school very early because my lessons start at 7 a.m. and finish at 12. My school's open all day to cope with the high numbers of students. There are three sessions, from 7 to 12, 12 to 5 and 5 to 10 o'clock in the evening. In the afternoon I do after-school activities like football or music. When I finish high school, I'll take an entrance exam to get into university.

Benglish is my favourite subject, but I can't keep up with all the homework! We have to learn lists of vocabulary by heart. At elementary school, the timetable includes earthquake practice. If there's an earthquake when children are outside, they have to line up in the playground. At the end of the day, we have to clean our classroom. Most of my classmates will go to university. In my country, 50% of the population are university graduates.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am a seventeen-year-old Italian student, and I am writing to enquire about doing an English course at your school next summer. I am particularly interested in doing the Cambridge First Certificate exam. I got good marks in my English exam this year, and I think I am B2 level. I would also like to know if you can arrange accommodation for me. Could you tell me what kind of accommodation you provide, and how much it costs?

Finally, I would be grateful if you could send me details of how to book a course and how to pay for it.

I look forward to hearing from you.

A school on every doorstep

In India there are 1.4 million children aged 6–11 who do not attend any school. That is why in 1988, two passionate teachers started a non-formal education project, Door Step School, for fifty children in a small slum in Mumbai. A year later the project turned into an official programme aiming to teach children to read and write.

At the beginning, the teachers walked from door to door looking for children who did not go to school, speaking to parents and asking them to send the children to their school. They arranged classrooms everywhere: in marketplaces, on pavements, at railway stations and even in a bus.

The idea spread very quickly to neighbouring communities. More and more teachers as well as volunteers decided to join the programme. Now, the Door Step School has a team of 1,000 teachers and volunteers in India and deals with over 70,000 students every year.

Since 1988, the teaching conditions in the Door Step School have changed a lot. Now, buses called School on Wheels serve as libraries and mobile classrooms with computers, TVs and DVD players. Apart from learning basic skills such as reading, writing and arithmetic, children also have lessons on hygiene, and health and safety.

Subject: interesting article!

Hi Matthew.

I've just read a very interesting article. It's about the Door Step School – an educational initiative in India, which in 1989 became ¹ . The idea came from ² who wanted children from a small slum in Mumbai to learn how to read and write. It started with only fifty children but now the numbers of teachers, ³ involved in the project are much higher. Children also study new subjects and the teaching conditions are ⁴ those in 1988.

Really interesting! I can send you a link if you like.

Love, Emma

Dear Sir or Madam,

With reference to your advertisement in yesterday's Devonshire Times, I would like to apply for the position of office helper. At the moment, I am in my final year at school, and I will be available to start work from 1st June. I really need this job because I want to earn some money to go on holiday.

I am particularly interested in your company because I hope to study architecture at university. I attach my CV for your information. As you will see, I worked on a building site last summer. It was a bit hard, but I got a really good suntan.

I do not have much experience of office work, but I am a fast learner. I have good communication skills and I enjoy working as part of a team. For these reasons, I feel I would be a suitable candidate for the job you are advertising.

I can be available for interview at any time. I have listed my contact details on my CV. Please don't call me before ten o'clock in the morning.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

Richard Dawson

THE TRUTH ABOUT SHOPPING

VG RETL

1 What do you think about shopping for clothes?

I love it! But I really don't want to look the same as everyone else. So I go to charity shops and a second-hand jeweller's. I want to look original.

MIA

I'm addicted to clothes and shopping. The bad news is that I'm poor! So I can't afford to buy much, except during the sales. But I go window shopping – it's still fun to look.

I love designer clothes.
I mean, they're really expensive but I think they're worth it. Anyway,
I want to look smart like my favourite celebrities.

I really enjoy shopping.

RYAN

My mum buys all my clothes! I don't care what I wear. I don't think you should judge people by the brands they wear. I hate clothes that have logos all over them.

2 How often do you go clothes shopping? Probably once a month.

Or more often if I need something for a special occasion. Sometimes I shop online too – there are some great online vintage shops.

Oh dear, it's bad. I get bored with my clothes – I can't help it. Fortunately, you don't have to be rich to buy second-hand clothes.

I don't need to go shopping often because I buy good quality clothes made from nice natural materials like cotton and wool. They last for ages.

As I said, I never go shopping. I don't even know what suits me. If something fits me and it feels comfortable – like my favourite hoodie – then I'm happy.

3 When was the last time you picked up a bargain? I always pick up a bargain! Last time I went to my favourite charity shop, I found this gorgeous silk dressing gown. Last weekend my favourite

High Street store had a sale. I got an amazing leather jacket for half price.

A bargain – hm. Oh yes, I got a really nice cashmere pullover – it was on special You'll have to ask my mum!

2 Read the text about Fairtrade. Why is it good for farmers?

Many of the products we buy in supermarkets are grown by farmers in developing countries. But farmers aren't paid enough to make a living.

So the idea of 'fair trade' has been around for many vears. When you see the FAIRTRADE mark on a product, you know that the farmers have been paid a fair price for their crops. You also know that they have been given extra money — the Fairtrade premium. This can be used by farmers to develop their businesses, invest in their communities or protect the environment.

In 1997, many organisations from different countries came together and one international Fairtrade organisation was formed. So far, the lives of approximately seven million people in developing countries have been improved by Fairtrade.

Amazon.com is a household name, but what do you know about the billionaire entrepreneur, Jeff Bezos, who started it in a garage in 1994?

His 1 father was a unicyclist

Bezos was born in 1964 when both his parents were still teenagers, and his father was a unicyclist in the circus. They divorced after a year. When Bezos was four, his mother remarried and he was adopted by his stepfather, Miguel Bezos, a Cuban immigrant to the United States. Jeff learnt that he was adopted when he was ten.

He showed an early interest in science and ²

When he was a schoolboy, Bezos made an electrical alarm to keep his younger brother and sister out of his room. Later, he graduated in electrical engineering and computer science. He was working in a well-paid job in New York when he heard about the rise of Internet use by 2,300% in one year. It was 1994, and he decided to start his own Internet business.

His 3 wasn't called Amazon at first

Amazon started as a bookstore in a garage, and grew fast. In its first month of business, orders came in from fortyfive countries around the world. At first, the online bookstore was named Cadabra, but it was hard to say, and some people thought it was similar to 'cadaver' (dead body).
Instead he chose the name Amazon: firstly, it appeared at the top of lists of website addresses because it begins with 'A'; secondly, Bezos could see the similarity between the world's largest river and the world's largest bookshop.

He survived a 4 accident

A helicopter Bezos was travelling in crashed. Bezos and the other passengers were not badly hurt, but the accident put him off helicopters. However, flying objects 25 are still a passion for him. Amazon is working on drones that can deliver orders in thirty minutes.

He's passionate about exploring 5

Bezos has dreamt about space travel since he was a child. At high school he said he wanted '... to build space hotels, amusement parks and colonies for two or three million people.' He started a company, Blue Origin, to make space travel more widely available. With Amazon he made shopping easy, and now he wants to do the same for space travel.

- 2 Where is the best shoe shop in your city?
- 3 When was the last time you bought a pair of shoes?
- Read the text. What happens when you buy a pair of TOMS shoes?

Do you have too many pairs of shoes? How many pairs do you need? Most people have a few pairs of trainers, some smart shoes, a pair of boots and some sandals. But can you imagine living without any shoes at all? Blake Mycoskie was shocked when he found out that a lot of children around the world were growing up without any shoes.

So he set up a company called Shoes for Tomorrow (TOMS). Every time he sells a pair, he gives a free pair to a child in need. He doesn't have to do much advertising – when people hear about TOMS, they tell one another. Over the years, he's given away lots of shoes to people in need – more than a million, in fact. TOMS has become the One for One™ company who give eyewear as well as shoes to people around the world. With a little imagination and a lot of hard work, Mycoskie has transformed the lives of a lot of people.

I got some headphones from you online but they didn't work. So I sent them back and you swapped them for a new pair. They weren't the right ones, so I sent them back again. I got another pair from you today and they're broken and they don't work.

I'm so angry! You can keep the headphones but I want all my money back now, and I'll never use your store again.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to complain about the service provided by your company.

I bought a pair of headphones (Model: SA-DIV-RED) from your website on 3rd March and paid for them online. They arrived the next day, but when I tried them, they did not work, so I returned them to you on 5th March and you exchanged them for a new pair. Unfortunately, the second pair you sent were the wrong model, so I emailed you again and sent them back one more time. I received a pair of headphones from you today, but when I unpacked them, I found they were damaged, and they do not work.

I am very disappointed with your service. I do not want another pair of headphones. I would be grateful if you could send me a full refund for the headphones and the cost of sending them back to you three times.

Yours faithfully,

R. Barker

THE HIGH STREET

Last summer I visited Britain. On the first day I needed some aspirin for my headache, so I asked the hotel owner where I could get some. She said: 'There's a chemist's on the high street.' I soon learned that a chemist's is what British people call a pharmacy and high street is called main street in America. That was a classic illustration of two nations divided by a common language.

The phrase high street is hardly ever explained to tourists because it is a part of everyday life in the UK. It means the main commercial street in every British town. What can be surprising is that a town's high street is not always the most important place in town and is not often called High Street, but has another official name.

In small villages, the high street has little more than a mail box, a newsagent's and a small supermarket. In a bigger town, you will find a chemist's, a DIY store, a pub and also traditional food shops like a butcher's or greengrocer's. In big cities, apart from pubs, clothes shops, toy shops, banks or an estate agent's line up on the high street. But there are not many vintage shops or fast food bars, unless they are part of big, multinational companies. This is because high street rents are usually the highest for businesses in the town.

Another surprise is high street fashion, which does not refer to the clothes that are sold in the high street shops – it only describes the clothes that are not too expensive but are fashionable. They are usually produced from good quality materials and you can find them everywhere, from big department stores to small local shops. Everyone can afford them.

Is the high street going to disappear from the British culture? I don't think so. Every year the competition for The Best High Street is announced. In 2016, there were 900 candidates. The title went to Blackburn, a big town in the north of England and one of my favorites.

- 1 The writer:
 - A is a British tourist to the USA.
 - B is an American tourist to the UK.
 - C runs a shop in the high street.
 - D lives in Blackburn.
- 2 What did the writer find out about the high street?
 - A It is the central part of every British town.
 - B Every high street looks the same.
 - C Most town sellers have their shops there.
 - D You can't have a fast food meal there.
- 3 High street fashion refers to:
 - A the most popular clothes.
 - B clothes on special offer.
 - C good quality brands.
 - D very expensive clothes.
- 4 In the text, the writer:
 - A gives the reasons for the differences between British and American English.
 - B invites people to go shopping in the high street.
 - C encourages towns to take part in the competition for the Best High Street.
 - D shares his/her discoveries about British culture.

GRAMMAR

Past Perfect

I can use the Past Perfect in a range of common situations.

1 Read Part 1 of a story about a very lucky footballer. What happened to Fabrice Muamba?

Shauna Muamba was watching her fiancé play football on television with her three-year-old son Joshua and her mother when Josh said 'Mummy, Daddy is frozen.'

Bolton footballer, Fabrice Muamba, had fallen down on the pitch. 'He's probably passed out' Shauna's mother said.

But he hadn't fainted - he had had a heart attack.

Around the world, millions of people were watching the FA Cup match between Tottenham and Bolton. Everyone knew it was serious because he had fallen like a tree – he hadn't put out his arms, he'd just dropped to the ground. By the time the medical people got to him, his heart had stopped.

The Tower That Sucks in Smog and Spits Out Clean Air

◄1) 3.39

The city of Beijing has such a big problem with its air quality that there are days when you can't see the buildings on the other side of the street. According to Nature Magazine, air pollution is responsible for three million deaths per year, and most of these deaths are in Asia. More and more people suffer from chest pain and have difficulty breathing. Children and the elderly are most at risk.

The 'Smog' – a blend of the words 'smoke' and 'fog' – is mainly caused by car exhaust fumes, factory smoke and dust storms from local construction projects. To protect themselves from the unhealthy effects of pollution, people wear face masks and children play sports indoors.

Last week, a Smog Free Tower was erected in the arts district of Beijing. It is part of an air purifying project by Daan Roosegaarde from Holland and is designed to take in smog and release clean air. The seven-metre-high tower resembles the kind of air purifier you may have in your house. Roosegaarde describes it as the largest smog vacuum cleaner in the world.

The Smog Free Tower was created by Roosegaarde and a green tech company in the Netherlands. It runs on renewable power. Smog particles that are dangerous to health are collected and stored inside the tower. The tower then blows out cleaner air. Roosegaarde uses the collected smog particles to make jewellery. When you buy a Smog Free Ring or a pair of cufflinks, you buy 1,000 cubic metres of clean air.

Roosegaarde got the idea for the Smog Free Project when he visited Beijing in 2013. One day he looked out of his hotel window and he simply couldn't see anything. The city had disappeared under a thick layer of smog.

Roosegaarde's project has the support of the Chinese Ministry of Environmental Protection, who have requested towers in four other cities. Roosegaarde is planning to set up 800 of his giant air purifiers in parks all over China to raise awareness of the huge problem of pollution. He believes that both citizens and the government need to work together to fight pollution. His dream is that in ten to fifteen years from now, we won't need his towers anymore.

WRITING

A reader's comment

I can write a simple online posting giving opinions.

Newsfocus.com: Daily Discussion

Is social media making you lose sleep?

A new study has found that one in five young people wakes up in the night to send or check messages.

What is more, research has shown that teenagers need 9.5 hours of sleep each night, but on average they only get 7.5 hours. This means they don't sleep long enough or well enough. A lack of sleep can make them tired, depressed and more likely to catch colds, flu and stomach bugs.

Personally, I don't think that social media is bad in itself. It's a great way to get information and keep in touch with your friends. However, I believe there is too much pressure on young people to be available 24/7 on social media. If you think about it, no message is so urgent that it can't wait until morning. For this reason I think that young people need to learn the importance of logging off at night. Switch your phone off and get a good night's sleep!

Newsfocus.con: Daily Discussion

Does social media make you happy?

The answer is probably not. A recent survey found that one in five people say they feel depressed when they use social media. Academic research suggests that regular use leads to feelings of anxiety, stress and poor sleep. We use social media to present a false picture of our lives - like a movie of the life we'd like to live rather than the one we're actually living. If we post something and don't get enough 'shares' or 'likes', it makes us feel bad or unloved. What is more, teenagers are losing the ability to communicate face-to-face. Social media is addictive, and like all drugs, it is doing us more harm than good. Just say no!

Present tenses – question forms

W języku angielskim pytania ogólne (Yes/No questions), szczegółowe (Wh- questions) i pytania o podmiot (subject questions) tworzymy w różny sposób. Przeanalizuj poniższe tabelki dla czasów Present Simple, Present Continuous i Present Perfect.

Present Simple

Pytania ogólne	(Yes/No que	estions)
Do		I/you/we/they	amaal: Enalish2
Does		he/she/it	speak English?
Pytania szczeg	ółowe (Wh- c	questions)
What	do	I/you/we/they	speak?
languages	does	he/she/it	speak:
Pytania o podr	niot (Subject	questions)
Who		speaks	English?

Present Continuous

Am		1
Are		you/we/they	working now?
Is		he/she/it
Pytania sz	czegółowe (Wh- questions)
	am	1	doing?
What	is	he/she/it
	are	you/we/they
Pytania o į	oodmiot (Su	bject questions)
Who		is working	now?

Present Perfect

Pytania og	jólne (Yes/No	questions)
Have		I/you/we/they	swum in a river?
Has		he/she/it	swum in a river!
Pytania sz	czegółowe (V	Vh- questions)
What	have	I/you/we/they	done?
	has	he/she/it	done!
Pytania o	podmiot (Sub	ject questions)
Who		has swum	in a river?

Tworząc pytanie szczegółowe z czasownikiem, któremu towarzyszy przyimek i rzeczownik, np. work with somebody itp., i pytając o ten właśnie rzeczownik, nie przenosimy przyimka na początek pytania (jak to robimy w języku polskim), ale zostawiamy go tam, gdzie jest, czyli po czasowniku.

Who does Emily work with? Z kim pracuje Emily?

W czasie Present Simple w pytaniach o podmiot nie stosujemy czasowników posiłkowych do i does. Porównaj:

Julia gives money to charity.

Who gives money to charity? Kto przekazuje pieniądze organizacjom charytatywnym?

Julia gives money to charity.

What does Julia give to charity? Co przekazuje Julia organizacjom charytatywnym?

 I think there are enough cooking programmes on TV nowadays. Sądzę, że obecnie w telewizji jest wystarczająco (dużo) programów kulinarnych.

Przysłówek enough ma znaczenie pozytywne, jeśli występuje w zdaniu twierdzącym, a jeżeli używamy go z przeczeniem, wówczas niesie znaczenie negatywne:

We had enough photos to prepare the exhibition. Mieliśmy wystarczającą liczbę zdjęć, aby przygotować wystawę. We didn't have enough photos to prepare the exhibition. Nie mieliśmy wystarczającej liczby zdjęć, aby przygotować wystawe.

Present Perfect with for and since

Czas Present Perfect stosujemy między innymi do opisywania stanów i czynności, które rozpoczęły się w przeszłości i trwają do chwili obecnej. Zwykle posługujemy się wtedy wyrażeniami z since i for.

- Since określa moment, w którym rozpoczęła się dana czynność lub stan trwający do chwili obecnej:
 since 2000 / Monday / last summer / my birthday / I was born od 2000 r. / poniedziałku / ostatniego lata / moich urodzin / narodzin
- For określa okres, przez który trwa dana czynność lub stan: for five minutes / two weeks / a long time / ages – od/przez np. od pięciu minut / dwóch tygodni / długiego czasu / wieków; przez pięć minut / dwa tygodnie / długi czas, itd.

Tłumacząc zdania tego typu na język polski, używamy czasu teraźniejszego:

My parents have had this house since 1990. Moi rodzice mają ten dom od 1990 roku.

I have known Carol for ten years. Znam Carol od dziesięciu lat.

Aby zapytać, od jak dawna trwa jakiś stan lub odbywa się jakaś czynność, używamy wyrażenia How long ...?:

How long have you lived in this house? Jak długo mieszkacie w tym domu?

1 Look at today's date and time and complete the table with the correct time expressions.

since		for
1 since December	=	?

3 ?	-	for 45 minutes
4 since breakfast	=	?
5 ?	=	for 27 years
6 ?	=	for five weeks

- Write questions with How long ...? Then write two answers to each question – one with since and one with for.

Future forms: Present Continuous, be going to and will

- Czasu Present Continuous używamy w odniesieniu do przyszłości, mówiąc o sprecyzowanych planach, w realizacji których poczyniono już przygotowania, a ich szczegóły (czas, miejsce, itp.) zostały określone. W języku polskim również posługujemy się w takich sytuacjach czasem teraźniejszym: I can't go shopping tomorrow at five. I'm playing tennis with Joy. - Nie mogę iść na zakupy jutro o piątej. Gram w tenisa z Joy. (Już się z nią umówiłem/umówiłam.)
- Konstrukcji be going to + bezokolicznik używamy, mówiąc o zamiarach i planach na przyszłość, które mogą ulec zmianie: Are you going to invite your aunt to the party? Czy zamierzasz zaprosić swoją ciocię na przyjęcie?
- Formy will + bezokolicznik używamy do wyrażania spontanicznych decyzji, często podejmowanych w momencie mówienia i będących reakcją na nową sytuację. W zdaniach z will często używamy zwrotów takich, jak: I think I'll ..., I'll probably ..., Don't worry, I'll ... 145-1-00 -4-1-1-6-1-1-NA-4-----

Adverbs

Przysłówki zwykle są określeniami:

- czasowników:
- Are you sitting comfortably? Czy siedzisz wygodnie?
- przymiotników:
 - The living-room is really beautiful. Salon jest naprawde piękny.
- innych przysłówków:
 - We drove incredibly slowly because of the traffic jams. Jechaliśmy niesłychanie powoli z powodu korków ulicznych.

Przysłówki tworzymy poprzez dodanie końcówki -ly do przymiotnika (soft – softly). Jeżeli jednak przymiotnik kończy się na:

- -le to końcówkę -e zamieniamy na -y (possible possibly),
- spółgłoskę + -y to końcówkę -y zamieniamy na -i oraz dodajemy -ly (happy - happily).

Niektóre przysłówki zachowują taką samą formę jak przymiotniki: hard - hard, fast - fast, late - late, early - early.

Przysłówek opisujący czasownik występuje:

- od razu po czasowniku:
- She dances beautifully. Ona pięknie tańczy.
- po dopełnieniu, jeżeli znajduje się ono po czasowniku: We ate our breakfast quickly and left for our holidays. Szybko zjedliśmy śniadanie i wyruszyliśmy na wakacje.

Wiekszość przysłówków stopniujemy poprzez dodanie more (stopień wyższy) lub the most (stopień najwyższy): beautifully - more beautifully - the most beautifully.

Przysłówki, które zachowują formę przymiotnika, stopniujemy tak, jak te przymiotniki:

low - lower - the lowest.

Niektóre przysłówki są stopniowane w sposób nieregularny:

- well better the best (dobrze lepiej najlepiej)
- badly worse the worst (źle gorzej najgorzej)

Przed przymiotnikiem i przysłówkiem możemy dodać przysłówek stopnia, który wzmacnia lub osłabia ich znaczenie:

- a little / a bit / slightly (nieco):
 - Sue says that living in the suburbs is slightly better now because there are more shops. Sue twierdzi, że obecnie życie na przedmieściach jest nieco lepsze, ponieważ jest tam teraz więcej sklepów.
- quite / rather / pretty (całkiem):
 - Since we redecorated the room, it looks pretty good. Po odnowieniu pokój wygląda całkiem dobrze.
- really (naprawde) / extremely (wyjatkowo) / completely (zupełnie):

You need to move this chest of drawers extremely carefully because it is an antique. Powinniście przesunąć tę komodę wyjątkowo delikatnie, ponieważ to antyk.

Choose the correct answer, A, B or C, to complete the text.

Moving from the city centre and living in the countryside was very strange for me at the beginning. To start with, it is ¹ quiet compared to living in the city as there is almost no traffic on the roads. We live in a small village and there aren't too many terraced or semi-detached houses. There are beautiful, ² designed stone cottages - most of them with only one or two floors. We live in a bungalow which is ³ spacious. My room, however, is small – but it is very cosy. It's not very entertaining here - there aren't many shops or cafés but there are some amazing 4 monuments nearby. I especially like the ruins of the old castle. We walk there sometimes at the weekends and it's such a fascinating place with lots of gripping stories about it from the past. There are ⁵ views there too, and this Sunday my family and I 6 2 a picnic there. I don't miss life in the city at all!

First Conditional

Zdań warunkowych pierwszego stopnia (First Conditional) używamy, mówiąc o zdarzeniach, które mogą nastąpić w przyszłości, jeżeli zaistnieją określone warunki.

If I tell them the truth, they won't believe me. Jeśli powiem im prawdę, nie uwierzą mi.

He won't pass his exams if he doesn't work hard. Nie zda egzaminów, jeśli nie będzie ciężko pracował.

Will he pass his exams if he works hard? Czy zda egzaminy, jeśli będzie ciężko pracował?

W zdaniu podrzednym rozpoczynającym się od if (opisującym warunek) używamy czasu Present Simple. W zdaniu nadrzędnym (opisującym konsekwencję) używamy will/won't. Zdania te mogą wystąpić w dowolnej kolejności. Jeśli zdanie podrzędne występuje jako pierwsze, stawiamy po nim przecinek:

If Vicky pays attention in class, she will do her homework well. Vicky will do her homework well if she pays attention in class. Vicky dobrze odrobi pracę domową, jeśli będzie uważała na lekcji.

will/won't + bezokolicznik (konsekwencja)

Defining relative clauses

Tworząc zdania podrzędne, które podają informację pozwalającą zidentyfikować konkretną osobę, rzecz lub miejsce (relative clauses), używamy następujących zaimków względnych (relative pronouns):

This is the teacher who/that teaches my class. To jest nauczyciel, który uczy moją klasę.

Do you know the girls who/that are talking to the PE teacher? Czy znasz dziewczyny, które rozmawiają z nauczycielem WF-u?

Ella went to a school where most pupils were girls. Ella uczyła się w szkole, w której większość uczniów stanowiły dziewczęta.

Zaimki względne who, which, where i that zwykle stawiamy tuż po osobie, rzeczy lub miejscu, do których się odnoszą. Zaimki who, which i that można pominąć, jeżeli następuje po nim zaimek osobowy lub rzeczownik:

We have a timetable (which/that) we can change. Mamy plan zajęć, który możemy zmieniać.

Zaimka względnego nie można pominąć, jeżeli nie następuje po nim zaimek osobowy lub rzeczownik.

- unless (chyba, że / jeśli nie): Amy will not make any progress unless she works systematically. Amy nie zrobi żadnych postępów, jeśli nie będzie systematycznie pracowała.

Zdania okolicznikowe czasu wprowadzamy za pomocą następujących spójników:

Second Conditional

Zdań warunkowych drugiego stopnia (Second Conditional) używamy, mówiąc o:

- obecnych sytuacjach lub stanach, których zmiana jest niemożliwa lub mało prawdopodobna:
 - If I weren't so tall, I would become a figure skater. Gdybym nie była tak wysoka, zostałabym łyżwiarką figurową.
 - If I were rich. I would live in a huge house. Gdvbvm był bogaty, mieszkałbym w ogromnym domu.
- czymś, co teoretycznie mogłoby nastąpić w przyszłości, ale jest mało realne:
 - If he left home earlier, he would never be late for work. Gdyby wychodził z domu wcześniej, nigdy nie spóźniałby się do pracy.

W zdaniu podrzędnym rozpoczynającym się od if (opisującym warunek) używamy czasu Past Simple.

W zdaniu nadrzędnym (opisującym konsekwencję) używamy would/wouldn't. (Forma skrócona czasownika would to 'd.)

Podobnie jak w zdaniach warunkowych pierwszego stopnia zdania składowe mogą wystąpić w dowolnej kolejności. Jeśli zdanie podrzędne występuje jako pierwsze, stawiamy po nim przecinek.

If + Past Simple (warunek),	would / wouldn't + bezokolicznik (konsekwencja).
If Sue knew Italian, Gdyby Sue znała włoski,	she'd apply for this job. ubiegałaby się o tę pracę.
would / wouldn't + bezokolicznik (konsekwencj	<pre>if + Past Simple (warunek).</pre>
Sue would apply for this job Sue ubiegałaby się o tę prac

W zdaniach warunkowych drugiego stopnia po I, he, she oraz it można użyć zarówno formy was, jak i were. Formy were używamy częściej w wypowiedziach formalnych i w języku pisanym.

Warto pamiętać, że w wyrażeniu If I were you (Gdybym był/ była tobą / Na twoim miejscu) zazwyczaj używa się were.

If I were you, I would tell him the truth. Na twoim miejscu powiedziałbym/powiedziałabym mu prawdę.

REFERENCE AND PRACTICE

Designer clothes are sold in the High Street. Markowa odzież jest sprzedawana w sklepach usytuowanych przy głównej ulicy. Stronę bierną z wykorzystaniem czasownika modalnego tworzymy według wzoru:

Designer clothes can be found in the High Street shops. Markową odzież można znaleźć w sklepach usytuowanych przy głównej ulicy.

To centrum handlowe odwiedzane jest przez około 50 000 osób dziennie.

Indefinite pronouns

Zaimków nieokreślonych używamy, kiedy mówimy o bliżej nieokreślonych ludziach, rzeczach lub miejscach.

REFERENCE AND PRACTICE

Wszystkie zaimki nieokreślone występują z czasownikiem w liczbie pojedynczej.

Everybody is fashionable in their own way. Wszyscy są modni na swój własny sposób.

Ludzie	Rzeczy	Miejsca
someone/somebody (ktoś)	something (coś)	somewhere (gdzieś)
anyone/anybody (ktoś, nikt)	anything (coś, nic)	anywhere (gdzieś, nigdzie)
no one/nobody (nikt)	nothing (nic)	nowhere (nigdzie)
everyone/everybody (każdy, wszyscy)	everything (wszystko)	everywhere (wszędzie)

W zdaniach twierdzących oraz pytaniach o charakterze prośby lub propozycji używamy form someone/somebody, something, somewhere: Somebody has left their receipt on the counter. Ktoś zostawił paragon na ladzie.

W zdaniach przeczących oraz pytaniach używamy form anybody/anyone, anything, anywhere: I haven't bought anything made of leather for a long time. Od dawna nie kupiłam niczego zrobionego ze skóry.

W zdaniach twierdzących o znaczeniu zaprzeczenia używamy form no one / nobody, nothing, nowhere: I'm not going to the shopping centre today. There will be nowhere to park. Dziś nie jadę do galerii handlowej. Nie będzie nigdzie miejsca do zaparkowania.

Zaimki te zawierają w sobie znaczenie zaprzeczenia, dlatego zdania, w których występują, mają konstrukcję zdań twierdzących. W języku polskim używamy wtedy podwójnego przeczenia.

Zaimka none (of) (nic, żaden z) używamy w odniesieniu do trzech lub więcej przedmiotów/osób. None występuje samodzielnie: I was looking for some comfortable high heels but I found none. Szukałam wygodnych butów na wysokim obcasie, ale żadnych nie znalazłam.

Po none of używamy rzeczownika z przedimkiem (the people) bądź przymiotnikiem dzierżawczym (my friends) lub zaimka osobowego (us). Jeżeli rzeczownik występuje w liczbie mnogiej, czasownik może przyjąć liczbę pojedynczą lub mnogą: None of her children is/are into trade. Żadne z jej dzieci nie interesuje się handlem.

Używając zaimków nieokreślonych, możemy dodać więcej informacji poprzez zastosowanie:

- bezokolicznika z to: There is nobody to go window shopping with me. Nie ma nikogo, kto poszedłby ze mną pooglądać wystawy sklepowe.
- przymiotnika: Joan needs to go somewhere quiet to rest after work. Joan musi pojechać w jakieś ciche miejsce, aby odpocząć po pracy.
- zaimka względnego (who, which, that): A debtor is somebody who has spent more money than he or she has got. Dłużnik to osoba, która wydała więcej pieniędzy niż ma/miała.

Past Perfect

Czasu Past Perfect zwykle używamy, opisując zdarzenia z przeszłości, które wymieniamy w kolejności niechronologicznej. Czas Past Perfect wyraźnie wskazuje wtedy, że dana czynność poprzedzała inne czynności (zwykle wyrażone w czasie Past Simple).

When Alex got to hospital, he had already come out in a rash. Kiedy Alex dotarł do szpitala, miał już wysypkę. (Wysypka miała miejsce wcześniej niż dotarcie do szpitala.)

Zastosowanie czasu Past Perfect może niekiedy całkowicie zmienić sens zdania:

The children went to sleep when we came. Kiedy przyszliśmy, dzieci poszły spać. (Dopiero po naszym przyjściu.)
The children had gone to sleep when we came. Kiedy

The children had gone to sleep when we came. Kiedy przyszliśmy, dzieci już spały. (Dzieci poszły spać, zanim przyszliśmy.)

Charakterystycznym wyrażeniem dla czasu Past Perfect jest by + określenie czasu, np. by the age of six, by the time I was six, by 1978 (do szóstego roku życia / zanim skończyłem/ skończyłam sześć lat, do 1978 roku):

By the time I was six, I had learnt to read. Zanim skończyłem/skończyłam 6 lat, nauczyłem/nauczyłam się czytać.
